Laura Ambrose, Aflac Insurance District Sales Coordinator/Associate, is pleased to partner with Logging Services and Exchange, LLC and the NC Association of Professional Loggers to provide Aflac voluntary supplemental insurance.

For companies that care about their employees- yet find funding new plans impractical- Aflac is your solution.

The popularity and appeal of our tax-favored insurance policies and benefit services have made us indispensable for hundreds of thousands of employers. Aflac is the number one provider of individual guaranteed –renewable insurance. (“Life & Health Statistical Report,” National Underwriter, August 20/27, 2007). Aflac is exclusively dedicated and focused on individually owned and controlled policies offered on a voluntary basis to ensure that our policyholders are the most well-protected, well-serviced “family” in the world.

By anticipating employees’ needs, Aflac is poised to respond when they’re most at risk – at the time of an accident or illness.

By anticipating employers’ concerns about the cost involvement of adding new benefits, we offer the ultimate package that works alone or with an existing group major medical or health savings account plan.

With Aflac you will also be able to:

- Realize potential FICA savings while increasing your employees purchasing power.
- Introduce individual choice and portability on a voluntary basis.
- Communicate the value of total company benefits in a variety of easy-to-understand formats.
- Improve enrollment, administrative and claims efficiencies.
- Provide an array of payroll policies that respond to “real world” cost and income challenges.
- Strengthen employee retention and productivity

Aflac currently has over 9,400 payroll groups in the Forestry, agriculture and fishing industry. Within these groups, we currently have over 50,900 policyholders and over 87,000 policies in force.
